New York Stock Market

New York, August 18.—No small part of the recovery recorded by the stock market to-day was directly traceable to the statement put out by the Harriman management after the close of business yesterday. Judge Loveti's unequivocal denial of any internal dissension in the Union Pactite, or probability of a reduction of the existing dividend, was accepted at its face value in most quarters, accompanied, as its seemd to be, by purchases of Harrman stocks on the part of bankers closely identified with that system. In speculative circles, however, some skepticism was shown, and it was averred that the Harriman party had manifested less celerity and frankness in the matter of Mr. Frick's retirement from the Union Pacific Company of the Union Pacific Company of the Union Pacific Lowester in the companies selling of the past three weeks, remains unsolved. There were hints to-day that the near future might inject a new and highly important interest into that property—an interest which in bygone years had often opposed the plans of the Harriman faction.

But for the fact that the labor situation in England has become even more acute, it is quite likely that today's movement might have proceeded further. Conditions in London and the Eritsh provinces were reported to be in a state of complete disorganization, and bullish trade prospects are unfoultedly being seriously affected. Private advices to international bankers were in some instances almost alarming, and there was a disposition to biame employers rather than the employes.

employers entire than the employers eliming of United States Steel to-day, even though it kept pace with other speculative leaders, in its firm understone served to call attention to the proposed tariff revision program at Washington, and denoted some uneasiness in the outcome of the legislation at the national capital. All other standard shares participated in today's advance to the extent of one or two points, but trading became exceedingly dull on the decline in marked contrast to the extraordinary activity which attended each successive downward movement of the last three weeks. There was no evidence of pub-two points, but trading became exceedingly dull on the decline in marketed contrast to the extraordinary activity which attended each successive downward movement of the last three weeks. There was no evidence of public interest, and much of recovery may be properly assigned to covering of short contracts.

Transactions in the first four hours of the session aggregated 250,000 shares of which 220,000 changed hands in the first hour. There was some increase of activity in the final dealing shared a point from its high price. The market has suddenly reversed under the lead of that stock, which advanced to 112 3-8, other leaders also tending shared upward. There were humerous net gains of 2 to 3 points, and the market's ton at the close was more sustained than at any previous time of the day.

Home incidents included threats of a strike in the Hillinois Central Railroad, forecasts of to-morrow's bank statement pointing to a large cash gain, and official figures dealing with the country's exports of manufactures ready for consumption. These show an increase of over $100,000,000 for $1540-11, of which machinery supplied the gains and cotton goods.

London bought and sold in this market, the net result being purchases of a few thousand shares. Failure of another London broker in America was reported, making the fourth incident of this kind during the week. Operations on the Paris and Berlin exchanges were without interest or influence here.

Bonds were steady, aside from weakness in American Tobacco 4 per the day and making the fourth incident of this kind during the week. Operations on the Paris and Berlin exchanges were without interest or influence here.

COTTON MARKETS.

New Tork August 18.—With official weather reports failing to show as much rain in the Southwest as indicated by the private advices of yesterday and with leading bulls showing no disposition to liquidate as a result of the English situation, the cotton market became firmer to-day and prices advinced sharply on support from trade interests and covering. The close was steady as a not rain of 10522 points.

Prominent Farmer Fastens Head in Forks of Tree and Jumps.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., August 18.—Nettied by the jests of several companions, while threshing grain near Largent, Hampshire county, W. Va., on Capton River, yesterday, Edward M. Heiskel, fifty years old, a prominent farmer and member of one of the pioneer families member of one of the piqueer families of the section, fretted all night, and while others were at breakfast this morning he waded in the river and committed suicide by fastening his head in the forks of a tree and dropping a distance of several feet, breaking his neck.

His whow states that he had been harboring the thought that he would not be able to meet certain financial obligations. He was a number of the Southern Methodist Church, and leaves several children, in addition to his wife.

While J. T. Sturn, now of Kansas was serving in Company H. Fourteenth. West Virginia Regiment, United States Army, during the Civil War, a Confederate builet grazed his cheek and another buried itself in a young tree near which he was standing, at Fisher's Hill, forty-seven years ago, He marked the tree as he hurriedly left the spot, declaring he would return some day and get the builet. This he did without difficulty this morning, while at Fisher's Hill with some touring motorists.

PETITION FOR ELECTION ON GOOD ROADS BONDS

In Circulation in Livingston District
State Senator Moncure May Have Opposition.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., August 18.—
Petitions are being circulated in Livingston District, Spotsylvania county, requesting an election on an issue of $70,000 bonds for improvement of public roads.

John Watson, Henry Allen and Henry White (colored) were sentenced to one year on the public roads by Justices Waller, Warren and Mitchell, in Spotsylvania, Wednesday, for assault on public highway.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear on H. G. Chesley, of this city, to induce him to run against Hon. R. C. L. Moncure, of Stafford county, for State Senator, representing the counties of Stafford, Spotsylvania, Louisa and the city of Fredericksburg. Mr. Chesley is prominent in the Republican party.

Professor George D. Rowe, of this can party.

Professor George D. Rowe, of this city, has been elected principal of the Dunnsville High School, in Essex county. Mr. Rowe was assistant to the principal of Fredericksburg High School last session, and is well qualified for the position.

Rev. James Cannon, superintendent, and Bishop James Atkins, president, of the Southern Assembly of the Methodist Church at Waynesboro, N. C., were in this city Thursday in consultation with Engineer Reid, getting information in regard to a proposed dam at Waynesville. Mr. Reid is constructing engineer of the Fredericksburg Water Power Company, which company recently built a large dam near this city.

James Thornton (colored) died at his home, near Port Royal, in Caroline county, Wednesday morning, aged eighty-eight years. Thornton was running ferry which took J. Wilkes Booth, who assassinated President Lincoln, across the Rappahannock River, near Port Royal, in escaping from Washington after the assassination. Thornton and Mr. Garrett, who lives near Port Royal, are said to be the only witnesses of the shooting other than the Federal troops.
